

Edward Cardinal Egan Pavilion

5655 Arlington Avenue, Bronx, NY

Project Owner:

Archdiocese of New York

Design Team

- Architect: Sullivan Architecture
- Engineer: OLA Consulting Engineers

Mechanical Contractor:

- KSW

ADE Contact:

- Sales: Ethan Finlay

Manufacturer:

- Greenheck: Dryer Exhaust Fans, Mixed Air Flow Fans, and Toilet Exhaust Fans
- Zehnder-Rittling: Finned Tube Radiation and Enclosure
- Titus: Air Outlets
- Yaskawa: 2100b VFD's with Bypass
- Cerus: Motor Starters

Completion Date:

- 2016

Description:

The new Edward Cardinal Egan Pavilion is a three-story, 29,000-square-foot pavilion built on the campus of what was known as the John Cardinal O'Connor Clergy Residence, overlooking the Hudson River in Riverdale. It has suite-style living quarters for 26 priests, plus many other features. Each suite will be approximately 480 square feet and will include a sitting area, bedroom and bathroom.

